Hi Captain,

I was notified and have it done to attend. Let's just hope that our Commission is over and I can get there. If not I will have Lt. Waters attend from CID.

All the best,

Richard

Mr. Tefank,

If my staff has not already contacted you, I wanted to be sure you knew about our upcoming Nightlife CPAB meeting on October 20th. We will be discussing our enforcement posture for Halloween, as well as asking for their buy in on sound management protocols.

The meeting is Tues October 20 at 14:00 at Dave and Buster's at the Hollywood and Highland Complex. If you or someone from your staff can attend, we would love it.

r/s,

Pete

All:

Thank you so much for your time this morning. I wanted to piggyback on LAPD's invitation to the "Hollywood Nightlife Meeting." This is a regular meeting of nightclubs and nightlife establishments in the area, along with LAPD, City Attorney, CD13 and other pertinent entities. The goal of the meetings is to ensure a sense of cooperation from the various establishments.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 20th, at 2:00 PM at Dave & Buster's, located at Hollywood & Highland. LADBS, Planning -- if you are able to send a representative, I know LAPD would be very appreciative and I think it would definitely help to achieve the sense of cooperation and communication we are collectively building.

Please let me, Captain Zarcone (peter.zarcone@lapd.lacity.org) or Lieutenant Baez (26623@lapd.lacity.org) know if you are interested or available to attend.

Thanks again for your time and hard work.

Thank you so much for your time this morning. I wanted to piggyback on LAPD's invitation to the "Hollywood Nightlife Meeting." This is a regular meeting of nightclubs and nightlife establishments in the area, along with LAPD, City Attorney, CD13 and other pertinent entities. The goal of the meetings is to ensure a sense of cooperation from the various establishments.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 20th, at 2:00 PM at Dave & Buster's, located at Hollywood & Highland.

LADBS, Planning -- if you are able to send a representative, I know LAPD would be very appreciative and I think it would definitely help to achieve the sense of cooperation and communication we are collectively building.

Please let me, Captain Zarcone (peter.zarcone@lapd.lacity.org <mailto:peter.zarcone@lapd.lacity.org>) or Lieutenant Baez (26623@lapd.lacity.org <mailto:26623@lapd.lacity.org>) know if you are interested or available to attend.

Ladies,

I received an email from Captain Zarcone this morning requesting to, "Please pull three years worth of calls for service, arrests, rfc's, and crime reports associated with Cashmere." Cashmere is located at 6757 Hollywood Boulevard and we would also like to see the intersection of Mc Cadden/Hollywood for that same time period. This is really high priority to Captain Zarcone because we are meeting with the City Attorney ASAP to discuss legal action on the closing of this club.

I will be a part of the meeting, so please send me what you find and Let me know if you need anything from me. Thanx

Good Afternoon Gentlemen,

The purpose of this email is to request approval for a 30-day continuation on the 3.18 investigation I have at the "Cashmere" nightclub located at 6757 Hollywood Blvd. As I'm sure you are aware this location has been a consistent source of problems as far as collateral criminal activity is concerned and is consistently in violation of the conditions of both the governing CUP and ABC Licenses attached to the property. Various different City Agencies are cooperating with our Office to revoke the establishment CUP and the "Cashmere" operators are scheduled to attend a revocation hearing on October 22nd. Despite this upcoming revocation hearing the club operators continue to host prohibited events and operate in violations of the governing licenses and permits. Our Office has received information regarding a Halloween promotion at the premises and plan to involve the fire department in an operation that will hopefully result in a temporary closure of the establishment for overcrowding.

Thanks for the notification. Good luck.

Dear Captain Zarcone,

Last week I met the same attorney retained by Cashmere, Michael Kolodzi, in court on a Cashmere case, who assured me Cashmere had no intention to reopen and added that every time Cashmere opened its doors "LAPD is present and it is killing business." It appears Cashmere has no intention of ceasing operations.

To draft a "cease & desist" aka "party house" aka "nuisance" letter,
the Cashmere owner(s) must be put on notice of the criminal activity at the location. Since the letter is a precursor to a potential criminal complaint, filed against the owners of the nuisance location, every nuisance-related report must be summarized and listed in the letter.

To that end, please advise who I should contact at Vice to pull any and all
Cashmere-related police reports generated from 2013 through present.
If any criminal activity in the adjacent parking lot(s) can be linked to Cashmere those reports should be included as well.

Please be advised if Hollywood LAPD has identified any other problem nightclubs or locations, please ask Vice to pull the past three years of those nuisance locations/clubs as well.

This strategy you and I developed to cope with the problem party houses in the Hollywood Hills has been effective and there is no reason to believe it would not be an effective strategy at the nuisance locations in Hollywood and throughout the city.

The strength of the strategy is your steadfast support of my endeavors, the constant attention by Senior Lead Officers Sanchez & Dillard, DSVD Det. Levin, and your name and title copied on the nuisance letters sent to the property owners.

Last week, DSVD Jedd Levin pulled the past three years of reports for Supper Club and the reports, as well as, any reports related to an LAPD identified nuisance location will be reviewed for a ZA and/or criminal nuisance letter, and be considered by West Bureau abatement attorney, Deputy City Attorney Nancy Hagan.

Please advise Vice to notify me as soon as the Cashmere reports are ready to be picked up. I am eager to get started.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jackie

We organized HED and VICE to cite the manager and have all patrons exit the nightclub in order for us to determine which patrons were over 21 years old. While at the nightclub we had minimal cooperation from the Cashmere staff. The usual managers were no where to be found.

The security manager advised us that tonight he was the manager. It was obvious that he was put up to it by club management.

We advised the manager that we wanted to meet with all of the security staff. The manager was able to gather that our meeting was for a guard card inspection and he alerted all the security staff to flee the night club. He denied that he did so, but again it was obvious. Based upon the club having no security to continue operating, the outside promoter did not want to have the club reopen. Therefore they all agreed to shut it down for the night.

During our investigation the club's attorney was present and had numerous questions regarding our investigation and actions. He had no issues, concerns or complaints regarding our investigation or actions. It is clear that they will continue to operate illegally. At this point, I am of the opinion that any further violations should be addressed with actual arrest and booking of owner and or managers. I am in tonight if you want to

Hi Captain,

I wanted to follow up with the investigating officers on Supperclub before the meeting we are having with chief Girmala on this location. I see that both Hollywood Vice and DSVD (Jedd Levin) have been working on the location. Do you have someone in particular you would like us to work with as a point person for this location? Also, per Jackie, Jedd is on his long vacation until after the meeting with the chief.

Thanks,

Gita

Hi all,

Any criminal arrests/citations by LAPD on the CUP should be given to Jackie to review. Don Cocek's shop does the CUP violations from Ladbs. I am not sure if ladbs inspectors have been sent out, but usually they are able to find violations at clubs as well. Jackie can also do any violations from ABC.

As soon as we get all of the reports on the location, we can send a notice letter under the public nuisance section of the penal code (unless by chance the reports do not evidence a public nuisance-which I highly doubt).

I have reviewed with Jackie what we need in a report to file the CUP violations; I am sure she has relayed this to vice and dsvd. If any unit needs more training, we are all happy to do more training.

I am reviewing the reports from the Supperclub. I doubt our civil side has enough to file a nuisance abatement case BUT we have other options there as well (public nuisance letter and za hearing plus criminal filings)that can achieve the same result.

Getting the reports on Cashmere asap would be great.

Thanks!

Dear Captain Zarcone,

Last week I met the same attorney retained by Cashmere, Michael Kolodzi, in court on a Cashmere case, who assured me Cashmere had no intention to reopen and added that every time Cashmere opened its doors "LAPD is present and it is killing business." It appears Cashmere has no intention of ceasing operations.

To draft a "cease & desist" aka "party house" aka "nuisance" letter, the Cashmere owner(s) must be put on notice of the criminal activity at the location. Since the letter is a precursor to a potential criminal complaint, filed against the owners of the nuisance location, every nuisance-related report must be summarized and listed in the letter.

To that end, please advise who I should contact at Vice to pull any and all Cashmere-related police reports generated from 2013 through present. If any criminal activity in the adjacent parking lot(s) can be linked to Cashmere those reports should be included as well.

Please be advised if Hollywood LAPD has identified any other problem nightclubs or locations, please ask Vice to pull the past three years of those nuisance locations/clubs as well.

This strategy you and I developed to cope with the problem party houses in the Hollywood Hills has been effective and there is no reason to believe it would not be an effective strategy at the nuisance locations in Hollywood and throughout the city.

The strength of the strategy is your steadfast support of my endeavors, the constant attention by Senior Lead Officers Sanchez & Dillard, DSVD Det. Levin, and your name and title copied on the nuisance letters sent to the property owners.

Last week, DSVD Jedd Levin pulled the past three years of reports for Supper Club and the reports, as well as, any reports related to an LAPD identified nuisance location will be reviewed for a ZA and/or criminal nuisance letter, and be considered by West Bureau abatement attorney, Deputy City Attorney Nancy Hagan.

Please advise Vice to notify me as soon as the Cashmere reports are ready to be picked up. I am eager to get started.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jackie

We organized HED and VICE to cite the manager and have all patrons exit the nightclub in order for us to determine which patrons were over 21 years old. While at the nightclub we had minimal cooperation from the Cashmere staff. The usual managers were no where to be found. The security manager advised us that tonight he was the manager. It was obvious that he was put up to it by club management.

We advised the manager that we wanted to meet with all of the security staff. The manager was able to gather that our meeting was for a guard card inspection and he alerted all the security staff to flee the night club. He denied that he did so, but again it was obvious. Based upon the club having no security to continue operating, the outside promoter did not want to have the club reopen. Therefore they all agreed to shut it down for the night.

During our investigation the club's attorney was present and had numerous questions regarding our investigation and actions. He had no issues, concerns or complaints regarding our investigation or actions. It is clear that they will continue to operate illegally. At this point, I am of the opinion that any further violations should be addressed with actual arrest and booking of owner and or managers. I am in tonight if you want to discuss further.

Dear Captain Zarcone,

Last week I met the same attorney retained by Cashmere, Michael Kolodzi, in court on a Cashmere case, who assured me Cashmere had no intention to reopen and added that every time Cashmere opened its doors "LAPD is present and it is killing business." It appears Cashmere has no intention of ceasing operations.

To draft a "cease & desist" aka "party house" aka "nuisance" letter, the Cashmere owner(s) must be put on notice of the criminal activity at the location. Since the letter is a precursor to a potential criminal complaint, filed against the owners of the nuisance location, every nuisance-related report must be summarized and listed in the letter.

To that end, please advise who I should contact at Vice to pull any and all Cashmere-related police reports generated from 2013 through present. If any criminal activity in the adjacent parking lot(s) can be linked to Cashmere those reports should be included as well.

Please be advised if Hollywood LAPD has identified any other problem nightclubs or locations, please ask Vice to pull the past three years of those nuisance locations/clubs as well.

This strategy you and I developed to cope with the problem party houses in the Hollywood Hills has been effective and there is no reason to believe it would not be an effective strategy at the nuisance locations in Hollywood and throughout the city.

The strength of the strategy is your steadfast support of my endeavors, the constant attention by Senior Lead Officers Sanchez & Dillard, DSVD Det. Levin, and your name and title copied on the nuisance letters sent to

property owners.

Last week, DSVD Jedd Levin pulled the past three years of reports for Supper Club and the reports, as well as, any reports related to an LAPD identified nuisance location will be reviewed for a ZA and/or criminal nuisance letter, and be considered by West Bureau abatement attorney, Deputy City Attorney Nancy Hagan.

Please advise Vice to notify me as soon as the Cashmere reports are ready to be picked up. I am eager to get started.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jackie

Tonight the Cashmere club opened its doors again. They again promoted an 18 and over event with an outside promoter, both which are violations of their CUP. At 2300 hours: I worked with VICE to operate the location. The UC officers confirmed the majority the patrons were 18 years old inside the Cashmere. We organized HED and VICE to cite the manager and have all patrons exit the nightclub in order for us to determine which patrons were over 21 years old. While at the nightclub we had minimal cooperation from the Cashmere staff. The usual managers were no where to be found. The security manager advised us that tonight he was the manager. It was obvious that he was put up to it by club management.

We advised the manager that we wanted to meet with all of the security staff. The manager was able to gather that our meeting was for a guard card inspection and he alerted all the security staff to flee the night club. He denied that he did so, but again it was obvious. Based upon the club having no security to continue operating, the outside promoter did not want to have the club reopen. Therefore they all agreed to shut it down for the night.

During our investigation the club's attorney was present and had numerous questions regarding our investigation and actions. He had no issues, concerns or complaints regarding our investigation or actions. It is clear that they will continue to operate illegally. At this point, I am of the opinion that any further violations should be addressed with actual arrest and booking of owner and or managers. I am in tonight if you want to discuss further.

Based upon the club having no security to continue operating, the outside promoter did not want to have the club reopen. Therefore they all agreed to shut it down for the night.

During our investigation the club's attorney was present and had numerous questions regarding our investigation and actions. He had no issues, concerns or complaints regarding our investigation or actions. It is clear that they will continue to operate illegally. At this point, I am of the opinion that any further violations should be addressed with actual arrest and booking of owner and or managers. I am in tonight if you want to discuss further.
